

The California African American Museum Presents

A BIOGRAPHER SPEAKS
Miguel Covarrubias and his Representations of African Americans

SATURDAY JANUARY 7, 2012 2:00 P.M.

Mexican born Miguel Covarrubias documented the cultural explosion known as The Harlem Renaissance with paintings and caricatures that appeared in Vanity Fair magazine.

Family friend and biographer Adriana Williams will discuss his groundbreaking work in being one of the first artists to portray African Americans in a non-stereotypical way.

600 State Drive • Exposition Park • Los Angeles, CA 90037
Admission is FREE • Parking $10 per vehicle available on 39th and Figueroa Streets
www.caamuseum.org | 213.744.7432